Description

Lightweight stainless steel channel has a notched system that securely holds squeegee rubber and channel preventing slipping side to side, wobbling or bending. Replacement channels for Renown window squeegees. Use with Renown Stainless Steel Window Squeegee Handle.

Features:

- Stainless steel squeegee prevents rusting and is lighter weight than traditional brass squeegees
- Channel is secured to handle with screw locks
- Soft rubber blade for streak free results and better glide
- Quality: Long lasting and rust-free stainless steel construction
- Compatible: Fits most window squeegee handles on the market
- Convenient: Notched channel system will not slip, wobble or bend
